

Florida Sheriffs Association

Honorary Sheriff

Ander Crenshaw

July 20, 1993

Ander Crenshaw represents Florida's Fourth Congressional District in the U.S. House of Representatives. Prior to coming to Congress, Crenshaw worked both in the private sector, as an investment banker, and served as an elected official in the State Legislature. His life in public service ultimately led to the Florida Senate where he served as the state's first Republican President of the Senate. Representative Crenshaw was first elected to Congress in 2000. In 1993, State Senator Crenshaw was chosen to be the Keynote Speaker for the 80th Annual Conference of the Florida Sheriffs Association. He was recognized at this event as an Honorary Sheriff due to his dedication to public safety in the Florida Legislature.

