Sheriffs Association Attains All Major Legislative Objectives

All of the Florida Sheriffs Association's major objectives were attained during the 1961 session of the Florida Legislature, according to Monroe County Sheriff John Spottswood, chairman of the Legislative Committee.

Spottswood said 13 Association-Sponsored bills were passed by the legislature. "These bills," he said, "were designed to give Florida more effective law enforcement and we are grateful to the members of the legislature for the excellent cooperation they gave to us in moving our bills through to final passage."

Spottswood also praised the Association's Attorney, John A. Madigan, Jr., and all of the members of the Legislative Committee for the work they did in preparing and supporting the 1961 program.

"Through the cooperation of all committee members we developed a program that we could sell to the legislature on its merits," he added.

Members of the Legislative Committee are Lee County

Sheriff Flanders Thompson, Levy County Sheriff James W. Turner, Duval County Sheriff Dale Carson, Clay Sheriff John P. Hall, Baker Sheriff Ed Yarbrough, Hillsborough Sheriff Ed Blackburn, Jr., Hardee Sheriff E. Odell Carlton, Highlands Sheriff Broward Coker, Leon Sheriff W. P. (Bill) Joyce, Volusia Sheriff Rodney Thursby, Pasco Sheriff Leslie Bessenger, Washington Sheriff George Watts, Pinellas Sheriff Don Genung, Alachua Sheriff Joe M. Crevasse, Jr., Union Sheriff John Whitehead, Florida Sheriffs Bureau Director Don McLeod and Sarasota Sheriff Ross E. Boyer.

Beware of the Money Blessers

PALATKA — Sheriff E. W. (Walt) Pellicer warned the public to beware of "money blessers" who are operating in this area of Florida.

He said these operators offer to bless a victim's money. After the blessing ceremony the victim is told not to look at the money until the following day. Next day the victim finds that the hand has been quicker than the eye and most of the money has departed with the blesser.

"These people, apparently gypsies, usually prey on elderly white and Negro citizens," Sheriff Pellicer said, recalling that a year or so ago some money blessers took $700 from an elderly Negro woman in this area.

Phony Reducing Racket Probed

DELAND — Sheriff Rodney Thursby was searching for some "reducing experts" who apparently intended to reduce the bank accounts rather than the figures of some 30 Volusia County women.

When enrolling for reducing courses, each woman gave the name of her bank and the type of account. At the bottom of the form was a bank draft she was asked to sign without knowing what she was signing.

Fine print in the contract stated the draft was in payment of services received from a "Figure Forming Salon."

It was believed that the operators of this scheme left town after signing up a number of customers.

The only time to prevent an accident is before it happens.

A safety check today may save YOUR life tomorrow.

TAMPA—SHERIFFS COMMENDED—Hillsborough County Sheriff Ed Blackburn Jr. (left) accepts from Dale Carlton, representative of Florida Citrus Mutual, a resolution passed by Citrus Mutual's Board of Directors commending and thanking Sheriffs for their work in apprehending fruit thieves. Sheriff Blackburn said that over 25 persons had been charged with fruit thefts and allied crimes since February of this year. The text of the resolution appears below.

RESOLUTION

Florida Citrus Mutual, world's largest citrus growers organization, is grateful to the Florida Sheriffs Association, and in particular, to Sheriffs and Staffs from Citrus Producing Counties for their outstanding dedication and cooperation in striving to end citrus fruit stealing.

In official session on February 15, 1961, the Board of Directors of Florida Citrus Mutual, on behalf of its more than 10,500 grower members, unanimously commends all law enforcement officers engaged in this cooperation with Florida Citrus Mutual to bring an end to vicious and wide-spread citrus fruit stealing and the various variations used in stealing fruit such as trespassing, illegal entry, illegal transportation, illegal receipt, etc.

Mutual's Board of Directors further resolve and pledge their united cooperation and every assistance in working with this honorable and dedicated group of men who seek only to protect the rights of others, often at their own personal risk.

Governor's Luncheon Will Be Highlight Of FSA Conference

MIAMI BEACH—A "Governor's Luncheon" featuring an address by Gov. Farris Bryant will be one of the highlights of the 48th Annual Conference of the Florida Sheriffs Association which will be held in the diLido Hotel here July 26, 27 and 28.

The conference will open July 26 with welcome addresses by Dade County Sheriff Thomas J. Kelly and Monroe County Sheriff John M. Spottswood, the official hosts.

The Governor's address is scheduled for July 27, and will be followed by a tour of the new six-million-dollar Dade County Jail and Public Safety Department Headquarters. A banquet honoring past presidents of the Sheriffs Association will be held that evening.

SEE COMPLETE PROGRAM ON PAGE 8

The third day of the conference will be devoted to a session on technical aspects of law enforcement arranged by the Florida Sheriffs Bureau.

Law enforcement officers from the South Florida area will be invited to attend this session and to be the guests of the Florida Sheriffs Association at a luncheon.

Association business to be transacted will include selection of sites for the Mid-Winter Conference which will be held in January, 1962; and the 49th Annual Conference, which will be held in mid-summer, 1962.

Reports will be given on the Florida Sheriffs Bureau, The Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch and the 1961 Legislative Program of the Sheriffs Association.

Cycle Riding Posse Sworn

OCALA—Sheriff Doug Willis last month administered the oath to 16 members of the new Marion County Sheriff's Posse.

Unique in that members will ride motorcycles rather than horses, the Posse is made up of members of the Ocala Junior Chamber of Commerce. It was formed to advertise Marion County and will perform as a drill team at parades and other functions throughout the state.

Magazine Features Turner's Picture

The May 1961 issue of "Florida County Official," monthly magazine, carried a picture of Levy County Sheriff James W. Turner, president of the Florida Sheriffs Association, on its cover.

Sheriff Turner will preside at the 48th Annual Conference of the Sheriffs Association which will be held at the diLido Hotel, Miami Beach, July 26, 27 and 28.

Sheriff Davis Smashes Burglary Ring

By Mike Iannone
Deputy Sheriff

PENSACOLA — Recently Escambia County Sheriff, Wm. E. Bill Davis broke up one of the largest burglary rings in the county's history. It resulted in the arrest of eight people including three city policemen and the solving of approximately 30 area burglaries.

Sheriff Davis stated this included safe burglaries of the county court house and city hall; and burglary and arson of records in the county solicitor's office. An estimated $100,000 in merchandise was recovered, including an estimated $50,000 in jewelry stolen from a local jeweler.

The case was solved by Sheriff Bill Davis and his investigation department along with City Police Inspector, Clyde Lewis and Detective H. P. Peake.

After several weeks of intensive investigation the case was climaxed during the early morning hours of April 4th, when the ringleader, who had been under surveillance for several days, was spotted by State Attorney William Frye attempting to break into a local hardware. Frye quickly notified the Sheriff and the store was surrounded by deputies and city policemen. The ringleader was captured after a brief scuffle and a few warning shots were fired.

Upon the arrest of Joseph Ruther, alleged ringleader, the garage of another gang member was searched producing a valuable amount of stolen merchandise. Later an estimated $50,000 in jewelry was recovered. Even more loot was recovered after the arrest of the three city policemen.

The investigation is presently in the final stages, the ringleader having pled guilty to 28 counts of Breaking and Entering and Grand larceny. He has been sentenced to 20 years in the State Prison at Raiford on one charge of Arson in connection with the burning of files and records in the county solicitor's office. Sentence was withheld pending pre-sentence investigation on the remaining 27 counts.

Since the arrests of the burglary gang the average number of breaking and enterings has greatly decreased. Sheriff Bill Davis has been commended by many citizens for his hard-fought drive to wipe out corruption and crime in Escambia County.

Safety Patrol Saves Lives

TAVARES — Here's a good example of what Sheriffs are doing in the field of water safety:

Lake County Sheriff Willis V. McCall became concerned about the high number of drownings due to boating accidents in his county. Between January and April there were 28 in 1958 and 16 in 1959.

He organized a water safety patrol, and the number of deaths dropped to five for 1960 and to three so far this year.

The substantial decrease was attributed not only to the water patrol but also to the activities of boat clubs in this area and to new state laws covering water safety.

By Jove it Works Says Scotland Yard

LONDON—Scotland Yard recently found a murder suspect by using an "Identi-Kit" invented in California.

The kit includes slides with hundreds of facial characteristics. The slides chosen by witnesses are framed on top of each other to produce a facial sketch.

Ranch Trustees Lighten Load Of Treasurer

LIVE OAK—Business operations of the Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch have been transferred from the offices of J. L. McMullen, located here in the McMullen Food Bank Inc. building, to the Boys Ranch.

This move was made possible when Wendell Lewis, son of Suwannee County Sheriff Hugh Lewis, was employed as a full-time business manager and it will ease the burden of responsibility carried by McMullen, who is the Boys Ranch Treasurer.

McMullen, one of the pioneers in the Boys Ranch project, handled a large portion of the Ranch business affairs over some 3½ years, but received no salary for the many long hours he devoted to this work.

Growth of the Ranch increased this burden of work to the point where the trustees felt it was necessary to hire a full-time business manager.

This will relieve McMullen of many of the detailed business transactions he has been handling, but as treasurer he will continue to receive and acknowledge all cash donations to the Ranch.

1,500 Attended Benefit Affair

PALATKA — Sheriff E. W. (Walt) Pellicer reported 1,500 persons attended a fish fry he sponsored here March 24 for the benefit of the Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch and Rodeheaver Boys Ranch.

He said the net proceeds totaled $1,084 and were divided evenly between the two Ranches.

Boys from both Ranches helped Sheriff Pellicer and his deputies with the fish fry.

The Sheriff also expressed his appreciation to Herschel Morris, Don Douglas, Charles Barnard, M. D. Raulerson, L. R. Ollif, A. W. Nichols, William Penn, Tommy Clay, Kenneth Guthrie and B. F. Waters for assistance rendered.

Times is Proud Of Boys Ranch

WINTER GARDEN — "We're proud," said the Winter Garden Times, "that right here in our fair State of Florida there is a ranch for boys in need — young lads right at the impressionable time of life who have no one to guide their unhappy lives."

Referring to the Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch, the newspaper went on to say that the ranch has made rapid progress and is providing an ideal home for future citizens.

Jax Burglary Was Initiation Stunt

JACKSONVILLE — Boys 13 and 15 questioned by the Sheriff's Department said they had broken into a public school building as a test of nerve so they could become eligible to join a street gang.

One of the boys gave officers the following list of 11 gangs supposed to be operating here: Hell on Wheels, Red Diamonds, Blood and Fire, Black Panthers, Hell Blazers, Wildcats, Blue Devils, Timber Wolves, Hell for Leather, Screaming Eagles and Hell Bounds.

He is 24, married and a graduate of East Tennessee State College with a degree in Business Administration. He is a graduate of Live Oak (Florida) High School, and a member of the Elks Lodge, Lions Club and Phi Sigma Kappa National Fraternity.

Mr. Bostwick is also an Honorary Member of the Florida Sheriffs Association.

Jurors Praise Efficiency of Walton Sheriff

DEFUNIAK SPRINGS — A circuit court grand jury commended Walton County Sheriff Howard (Andy) Anderson for the "able and efficient manner" in which his department is being operated.

The jurors went on to say that they especially approved "the close and effective surveillance by this (the sheriff's) department of all juke joints and similar potential trouble spots in the county."

"We also approve the purchase of new uniforms and other equipment for members of the sheriff's force," the report continued, "and commend the board of county commissioners for their support of law enforcement activities."

"As soon as funds will allow, we recommend that additional equipment be purchased for the sheriff's department. Items most urgently needed include: at least one more patrol car, a boat and motor to be used in rescue work, and walkie-talkie radios for use in areas where vehicles cannot penetrate."

The jury reported that the county jail had been repainted and thoroughly cleaned; and expressed the belief that "it is now . . . the cleanest jail in the entire circuit."

The jury also expressed its appreciation to the county commissioners for furnishing the paint and to the sheriff for having the work done.

Deputy Saves Woman's Life

FT. PIERCE—Deputy Sheriff Pat Duval is credited with saving the life of a woman who had been slashed on the cheek and throat by a knife.

According to the Ft. Pierce News-Tribune, Deputy Duval placed his hand on the injured woman's spurting jugular vein and held it there while she was loaded into an ambulance and driven to the hospital.

Less than 15 minutes after the cutting, Duval radioed to the Sheriff's Department that he had apprehended the woman's estranged husband, who was held on a charge of aggravated assault.

The woman's condition was described as "satisfactory" at the hospital.

Norvell's Audit Is Favorable

FT. PIERCE—Sheriff J. R. Norvell's records were accurate and well kept during the period from October 1, 1957 to January 31, 1961, according to a state audit report.

The report stated that all collections of record were accurately accounted for and pre-numbered receipts were used.

Budgets for the operation of the sheriff's office were properly prepared and adhered to for each of the fiscal years of the audit period.

Disappearing Cokes Mystery Solved

FT. PIERCE—The mystery of the "Disappearing Cokes" was solved here when Deputy Sheriff Martin McMullian discovered that four youngsters had in their possession master keys they could use in opening coin operated Coca Cola dispensing machines.

Under questioning the youngsters revealed that the keys had been stolen from the local Coca Cola plant.

Tireless Efforts Solve Mystery of Murdered Woman on Trash Dump

PUNTA GORDA — Through tireless and persistent efforts Sheriff Travis Parnell solved the mystery of the unidentified woman whose shotgun-blasted body was found on a Cape Haze trash dump early in February.

After a three-month search for information, relatives from Newnan, Ga., identified the woman as Mildred V. Neill, 30, mother of two boys.

Further checking resulted in a warrant being issued charging Lemuel Dean Burnett, 40, Tennessee State Penitentiary inmate, with murdering Mrs. Neill.

On Feb. 4 a telephone serviceman found the victim, partly covered with quilts, in a dump area near Cape Haze. The top of her head had been blown off by a shotgun blast. Authorities later found a 12-gauge shotgun case nearby.

Some 2,000 persons viewed the body at a funeral home here and hundreds of false clues were run down by the sheriff's department. The woman's picture was circulated throughout Florida and other states through bulletins.

One of these bulletins came to the attention of Sheriff Lamar Potts, at Newnan, Ga., and he contacted Sheriff Parnell because he had had a report of the Neill woman being missing. This led to positive identification of the body early last month.

Sheriff Parnell said further investigation revealed that the woman had left Senoia, Ga., around Jan. 29 with a man identified as Burnette.

Burnette was traced to Tennessee where he was serving a sentence in the state penitentiary for larceny.

Charlotte County Chief Deputy Sheriff Lonnie Byrd, State Attorney Frank Schaub and Cliff Powell, Florida Sheriffs Bureau polygraph (lie detector) operator went to the penitentiary in Tennessee and questioned Burnette extensively.

A warrant charging him with murdering Mrs. Neill was issued after this questioning.

Telephone Looters Used Pillow, Rifle

WEST PALM BEACH—A pillow and a partially silenced rifle were the tools used by three Miami men arrested here on charges of looting public pay telephones.

The rifle had some holes drilled in the end of the barrel as a noise suppressor and the pillow was apparently wrapped around the end of the barrel to further muffle the sound.

Using this equipment the men allegedly blasted their way into telephone coin boxes by shooting off the locks.

Prisoner's Name Well Scrambled

TALLAHASSEE—Talk about scrambled names!

When Sheriff Bill Joyce's department arrested Fortunatus Peter Yesley, of Worcester, Mass., for investigation of forgery deputies had quite a time establishing what his real name was.

They found he had also at various times used the names Sarb Lafitte and Otto Benz, but these were apparently aliases.

Further checking revealed that he had apparently been originally christened Peter Yashinskas, and had later had his last name legally changed to Yesley. At least that is how he was booked.

Sheriff Joyce said Yesley was caught through the "red flash" system which enables the sheriff's department to send out a speedy warning to merchants when a forger or worthless check passer is operating here.

Yesley had passed three checks and was in the process of passing a fourth when he was arrested, the Sheriff said.

Investigation indicated Yesley had passed some 40 or 50 checks between Tallahassee and New Orleans, the Sheriff said, and therefore he was turned over to federal authorities.

The biennial appropriation finally approved for the Bureau was $972,748—an increase of more than $300,000 over the last biennium.

Slaying of 2 Deputies Serves as Reminder of Risks Lawmen Face

LAKE BUTLER—The violent death that came to two men near this quiet and normally peaceful community on May 23 is another reminder of the risk involved in the day-to-day duties of law enforcement officers.

Reports indicate that Deputy Sheriff Hal Croft and Ronald Jackson, a special deputy who was also a nephew of Union County Sheriff John Whitehead, were gunned down without warning when they attempted to serve a warrant on a man charged with a firearms violation.

Their attacker was identified as Joe Reddish, 40, who reportedly blasted the two deputies with a shotgun, then wounded himself with Croft's pistol. He was hospitalized and was reported in fair condition.

Sheriff Whitehead said a complaint had been received that Reddish had fired a shotgun into the residence of a neighbor, and a warrant was issued for his arrest. Croft was in the process of serving the warrant when he was shot.

The Sheriff gave the following report on the shooting:

The deputies had pulled their car into the yard with the front of the car facing the house where Reddish was located. Croft went toward the house and Jackson into the yard.

Evidently Croft was shot from a window while he was on the porch and ran back to the car. The blast tore all the way through his body.

A shot from the doorway hit Jackson. Nine buckshot pellets penetrated the trunk of his body. Badly wounded, Jackson managed to get back to the car and apparently was attempting to crawl around it to the radio to summon help when he was hit again, this time with bird-shot.

At this point, Reddish's father, Raiford, and his nephew, Marshburn Reddish, arrived.

Marshburn used the radio in the deputy's patrol car to call the sheriff's office. Croft was dead when officers arrived and Jackson lived for about 30 minutes to an hour afterward.

Sheriff Whitehead said he had intended to serve the warrant on Reddish himself but was investigating two break-ins which had occurred during the previous night.

Croft had been a deputy since September and before that was a state trooper for three years. Jackson was deputized and often rode with regular deputies on days off from his regular job.

Both men were married and each had one child.

Sheriff Host to School Patrol

FORT MYERS—Sheriff Flinders Thompson's annual party for the School Safety Patrol was a big success this year.

If you don't believe it, ask the 528 youngsters who consumed 1,000 hot dogs, 1,000 bottles of soft drinks, 100 pounds of baked beans, 100 pounds of cole slaw and two gallons of mustard.

The annual picnic was held at Fort Myers Beach from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., giving the patrol members an opportunity to handle their assigned duties at school crossings before and after the outing.

All the food was donated by local merchants and prepared by The Snack House. Faculty members and parents assisted in supervising the youngsters and serving the food.

"It was just perfect," said Sheriff Thompson. "We had no injuries, no mishaps of any kind—maybe a few sunburned backs and noses and about 150 of the kids came up and told me what a nice time they had."

Genuine Ham

SARASOTA—Sheriffs have sometimes been accused of being "hams" — but here's one who has a license to be one.

Sarasota County Sheriff Ross Boyer recently received a novice license as a "ham" radio operator and is authorized to operate his own short-wave radio station with call letters WN4AVO.

This license will qualify him to send messages on the air waves by key and he is currently working toward his general license which will enable him to send voice messages.

Sheriff Boyer has been interested in Radio as a hobby for some time and has built several pieces of FM and AM radio equipment.

Ex-Hillsborough Sheriff Dies

TAMPA—R. T. Joughin, who was Sheriff of Hillsborough County from 1929 to 1933, died here April 25 at the age of 81.

The Tampa Times said he had a reputation as a gunslinging sheriff because of several gun battles in which he was the victor.

One of these occurred in 1930 when he traded shots with "The Carnation Kid," reputedly a Chicago racketeer, and killed him, the Times said.

The next year, according to the Times, Sheriff Joughin and the late Addison Logan, then police chief, surprised Dutch Gonzalez and another criminal, known as "Happy Henry," cracking a safe in a downtown building and both safecrackers died in the gunfight that followed.

A native of Texas, Sheriff Joughin came to Tampa in 1898 and established a plumbing firm which he operated until his retirement in 1956.

School Approved In County Jail

WEST PALM BEACH—Sheriff Martin Kellenberger has approved a plan to teach reading and writing to illiterate prisoners in the Palm Beach County Jail.

The teacher is a prisoner who is a college graduate and has a degree in education. He volunteered his services and the county school system provided first, second and third grade books.

"We furnish the paper and pencils," said Capt. W. J. McCullough, chief jailer, "and we encourage them too."

A recent report revealed that there were 15 illiterates in the jail.

Former Escambia Sheriff Deceased

PENSACOLA—Former Escambia County Sheriff R. L. Kendrick, 69, died at Pensacola Hospital, May 29.

A native of Bainbridge, Ga., he served as Sheriff from 1944 through 1956. He also served two terms as a member of the Board of County Commissioners and two terms as Justice of the Peace.

He was a 32nd Degree Scottish Rite Mason and a member of the Baptist Church. Survivors include his widow and two sons.

FORT LAUDERDALE — DISTINGUISHED SERVICE — Above is a picture of the certificate of appreciation received by Sheriff Allen B. Michell for distinguished service rendered to the 1961 Heart Fund in Broward County. He arranged to have plastic coin collection containers placed in business places throughout the county and did it so effectively that Heart Fund income from this source was more than four times the amount received in previous years. The Heart Association of Broward County also addressed a letter of commendation to Deputy Sheriff John Berger, Captain of the Sheriff's Road Patrol, for the "outstandingly efficient manner" in which the distribution of the containers was conducted. "The spirit of cooperation, interest in community service and sincere courtesy displayed by you and your staff are notably outstanding," the letter added.

Boyers Get First Opportunity to See First Grandchild

SARASOTA — Sheriff and Mrs. Ross Boyer began enjoying the full benefits of being grandparents last month when they went to New York to welcome their granddaughter, Amy, to America.

Amy, who is the daughter of Lt. and Mrs. Russell Currin, was born overseas and this was their first opportunity to see her. Mrs. Currin is the Boyers' daughter.

The Currins and Amy returned to the U.S.A. from Newmarket, England, where Lt. Currin had been stationed for 14 months. His overseas duty also included two years in France.

Lt. Currin has terminated his military service and plans to attend the University of Miami.

Spending Made Gause Curious

MARIANNA—Sheriff Barkley Gause became curious when he heard that three Negro men were spending money freely, although they were known to be unemployed.

After investigating the reports, the Sheriff arrested the men and charged them with stealing $250 from the home of Arthur Pender, Greenwood. About $125 of the stolen money was recovered at the time of the arrests.

Abbott Named to Board of Trustees By Presbyterians

PANAMA CITY—Bay County Sheriff Charles H. Abbott was named by the Presbyterian Synod of Florida as a member of the board of trustees for Bradenton Manor, a home for elderly persons being constructed by the church at Bradenton.

He is an elder, a Sunday School teacher and chairman of the Evangelism Committee of Wallace Memorial Presbyterian Church here.

Construction of Bradenton Manor was begun in February, 1960, and is financed by an FHA loan of $1,250,000. It is expected to be ready for occupancy in July.

Fire Control Better With Sheriff's Help

MOORE HAVEN—This area will have better rural fire control as the result of a cooperative communications system worked out by Glades County Sheriff Roy Lundy and the Florida Forest Service.

Now anyone in Glades County wanting to report a fire can call the Sheriff's office and the information can be relayed immediately to the Forest Service by radio.

This speeds up fire reports which formerly had to be made by long distance telephone.

LIVE OAK—JUNIOR RIFLEMEN—Suwannee County Sheriff Hugh Lewis is sponsoring a new organization known as the Junior Riflemen of Live Oak to encourage firearms safety among youngsters. Some of the members are shown in the top picture at the closely supervised firing range which has been constructed for the use of the group. The bottom picture shows Sheriff Lewis (third from left) with some of the instructors. They are (from left) Paul Langford, Jr., Brody Harris, C. T. Baisden, Mahone Rees and Frank Haddon. Delinquency up In Rural Areas

The Children's Bureau in Washington, D. C., announced that juvenile delinquency cases in rural areas of the United States increased 15% during the past year. The overall increase in the nation was only 2%.

Despite the large increase, the bureau said juvenile courts in rural areas still handled only about two-fifths of all court delinquency cases in the country last year. But the figures do show that the number of cases in these areas is increasing faster than elsewhere.

More than 483,000 juvenile delinquency cases were handled by juvenile courts in the Nation last year.

On the brighter side, last year's increase was the smallest reported during the last decade.

Rural delinquency increases are to be expected since these areas cannot afford widespread youth programs such as YMCA and Police Athletic Leagues prevalent in larger urban communities.

Many sheriffs, however, have organized Junior Deputy Sheriffs' Leagues and athletic leagues. In these areas, they report that juvenile delinquency is under control.

DELAND—THE RIGHT WAY—Sheriff Rodney Thursby's Junior Deputy Sheriffs receive lessons in marksmanship and firearms safety as part of their training. Here Daniel Nolan Jr., one of the Junior Deputies, is shown getting some valuable pointers from Deputy Sheriff Dan Fury who was an expert marksman in the Army and has been on many shooting teams. Paper Urges More Funds for Enforcement

HOLLYWOOD—The Hollywood Sun-Tattler believes that economy is an admirable thing but not when it results in short-handed and inadequately equipped law enforcement agencies.

The newspaper said the public "must face up to the fact that crime is becoming more and more a major problem, and that the only way it can be effectively combatted is to bolster the size and facilities of our law enforcement agencies."

"Almost every municipal police department in the county is working shorthanded, as is the Broward County Sheriff's Department. Therefore, it should not be surprising that there is a rapid increase in crime."

"It is time we started 'beefing up' our police departments and sheriff's departments so that they can more effectively cope with the increasing problems they face."

Wauchula Officers' Courtesy Praised

WAUCHULA—This newspaper's "Courtesy Carnation" for the month of May goes to the Wauchula Police Department.

The department was recently complimented by Tampa television personality Paul Reynolds for "the apparent high quality of its men."

Said Reynolds in a letter to Police Chief Paul Johns: "The men who talked with me were two of the most courteous, intelligent, yet dedicated officers I have met in a long while and I think you can be proud of the impression they make on visitors."
